

MR. CHANDAN AWASTHI
Research Associate

Chandan Awasthi is specialising on Social Dimensions of Police Reforms and also assisting in developing indicators of justice delivery in Haryana, Punjab, Gujarat and Assam. His Ph.D work is near completion.

Experience

08 years in academic research

Ph.D. (Pursuing)

‘Construction of Dominant Geopolitical Discourse in US Foreign Policy: A Case Study of Central Asia Since 2001’
Department of Political Science, Panjab University, Chandigarh.

Junior Research Fellow (Jan 07 – Dec 08)

India’s Antarctic Ocean Policy Research Group (IAOPRG), Department of Ocean Development, Ministry of Earth Sciences, Government of India, at, Centre for the Study of Geopolitics, Panjab University, Chandigarh.

Research Fellow (Jan 09 – Apr 09)

Centre For Joint Warfare Studies (CENJOWS), Integrated Defence Staff (IDS), Ministry of Defence, at, Department of Defence and national Security Studies, Panjab University.

Visiting Researcher (Oct 2010 – Jan 2011)

Located at Almaty, Kazakhstan (For Field Work)

Programme Intern (Nov 2009 – Aug 2010)

Commonwealth Youth Programme, Regional Centre Asia, under Commonwealth Secretariat, London.

Area of Research

Police Studies

Evaluation Studies

International Relations