

PROF. P.S. VERMADirector – Research*(Democracy, Decentralisation and Empowerment of Vulnerable Groups)

Prof. P.S. Verma is Professor of Political Science working with IDC since 2007. He has been Chairperson of the Department of Political Science, Central Asian Studies and Director of Academic Staff College, Panjab University, Chandigarh. He has 32 years of teaching experience at the University level and 37 years research experience, including the supervision of M.Phil, Ph.D and various research projects undertaken from time to time.

The focus of his research has been mainly on areas such as rural development, panchayati raj, urban local self-government institutions, land reforms, common property resources, social justice, political parties, leadership, elections and voting behaviour, communalism, Dalit and the marginal groups.

He has published 75 research articles in distinguished journals and written four books based on empirical work done in different states like Rajasthan and Jammu & Kashmir. He has also contributed comprehensive research papers on states like Punjab, Haryana and Himachal Pradesh. A book on the “Political Process in Punjab” is also getting finalised.