

PROF. S.L. SHARMA
Director – Research
(Haryana Development Studies)

Prof. S.L. Sharma is a Professor of Sociology. He has published six books and 125 papers. His fields of academic and research interests cover development studies, including modernisation and globalisation; Social transformation in India; Sociology of education; Indian diaspora; ethnicity and nationalism; and, Sociology of corruption. He is presently working in a project on Urban Development with special reference to Slums, Housing and Urban Poverty.