

MR. SUNIL ARORA
Systems Manager(IT)

Sunil Arora specialises in the planning and developing process of all implemental phases of Data Analysis and Management. This includes installing/troubleshooting of software and hardware, design programming, data management, networking, Internet and network security etc. In addition to strategically evaluating organizational needs, he supervises the programming, support, and analyst departments of the organization relating to web and information.